

Suggested Genealogy Web Sites

The American Family Immigration History Center

<http://www.ellisland.org>

Search for your Ellis Island Ancestors.

Ancestry, Inc.

<http://www.ancestry.com>

Contains many genealogy databases. You may search the Social Security Death Index (SSDI) without charge.

Barrel of Genealogy Links

<http://cpcug.org/user/jlacombe/mark.html>

A resource for numerous links to genealogical websites.

Cyndi's List

<http://www.CyndisList.com>

Comprehensive collection of Internet genealogy resources. This is an excellent starting point.

Family Search

<http://www.familysearch.org>

Official website of the LDS Family History Center.

Family Tree Maker Online

<http://www.familytreemaker.com>

Family Tree Maker offers several on-line genealogy classes as well as information about its software products.

Federation of Genealogical Societies

<http://fgs.org>

Homepage of the national organization.

GENDEX-WWW Genealogical Index

<http://www.gendex.com/gendex>

Index to family records submitted by individual researchers.

Genealogy Homepage

<http://www.genhomepage.com>

Good collection of information for the genealogist as well as information about ROOTS-L.

Genealogy Toolbox

<http://www.genealogytoolbox.com>

Searchable query database, the Journal of Online Genealogy, and a list of genealogy links.

Library of Michigan's Genealogy Collection

<http://michigan.gov/hal>

Information about genealogy and the Library of Michigan's collection as well as popular genealogy forms.

Michigan eLibrary's (MeL's) Genealogy Page

<http://mel.org/humanities/history/genealogy/GENEALOGY-index.html>

This basic list of genealogy links will help you get started.

National Archives and Records Administration Genealogy Page

<http://www.archives.gov/researchroom/genealogy/index.htm>

This genealogy page lists resources available at the National Archives and discusses how to access the records and interpret them.

National Genealogical Society

<http://www.ngsgenealogy.org>

Information about the society and how to submit research requests.

New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS)

<http://www.nehgs.org>

The homepage of one of the nation's largest genealogical organizations.

The Official Federal Land Patent Record Site

<http://www.glorerecords.btm.gov>

The U.S. Department of Interior-Bureau of Land Management.

Rootsweb Genealogical Data Cooperative

<http://www.rootsweb.com>

Home of the ROOTS-L genealogy listserv and the Roots Surname List.

USGenWeb Project

<http://www.usgenweb.com/index.html>

Grassroots project to get genealogy information online for each county in the United States. Each state has a page listing types of records available.